

ILETA - AWARDS

CELEBRATING INNOVATION IN LEGAL ENGLISH LANGUAGE TEACHING

At ILETA we would like to award innovation across legal English language learning, teaching, and assessment internationally.

We are looking for diverse entrants. We invite materials writers, teachers, school owners, trainers, and academics. No matter where you are in the world, whether in Europe, Asia, Africa, the Americas, we encourage you to enter the ILETA Awards Competition.

Finalists and winners will be given special social media attention to raise their profile and allow them to reach new networks, enhance work opportunities and collaborative projects. Share your expertise alongside other industry experts.

PRIZE: The (3) winners will be given a free pass to the 2026 ILETA Conference¹.

ILETA: CELEBRATING DIVERSITY AND PROMOTING ACCESSIBILITY

ILETA makes a commitment to ensuring that the ILETA Awards are inclusive and are a testimony to the broad diversity of legal English language education around the world. We welcome and encourage applications from all backgrounds.

To kick things off, ILETA is pleased to announce three (3) inaugural awards: -

1. Award for the dissemination of legal knowledge
2. Award for research in comparative legal linguistics
3. Award for the advancement of legal English as a discipline

¹ All winners will have their registration fees for the 2026 ILETA Annual Conference waived. Please note that the prize DOES NOT include any costs associated with airfares, travel expenses and accommodation.

APPLYING FOR AN ILETA AWARD

To enter the ILETA award competition you must complete the online questionnaire and submit a sample of your work. All parts must be completed.

The ILETA online questionnaire contains questions for you to detail and explain your work. We will require digital access to your work, project materials, research etc.

If you are submitting a printed publication, a digital version should be submitted eg in PDF format.

Your details will be used for communication and marketing purposes related to the ILETA Awards. All parties need to be informed of the application and consent to the application submission.

Each individual credited may also receive communication about the awards. Please ensure that you provide a valid contact email address for each individual for this purpose.
